To Whom It May Concern,

I am pleased to confirm that Kashif Rashid has registered for “New Directions for Libraries, Scholars, and Partnerships: an International Symposium,” which will be held in Frankfurt, Germany on October 13, 2017.

Payment for Mr. Rashid’s registration, in the amount of 60 Euros, has been received by the Center for Research Libraries.

We are looking forward to Mr. Rashid’s attendance at the symposium, as it will be a unique opportunity for librarians and information professionals from Europe, North American and other parts of the world to come together, share perspectives, and learn from leaders and colleagues.

Sincerely,
